

Long Workshops:

- A paradigm shift in the diagnosis and treatment of sports medicine injuries
- Cancer rehabilitation: an opportunity for clinical application and programmatic development
- Dysphagia rehabilitation: pathophysiology, evaluation, and treatment
- Lower limb amputations. Team work: prescription, fitting and training in pediatrics and adults
- Making sense of rehabilitation trials: a critical appraisal workshop for healthcare professionals
- Supporting lifelong health and physical activity among individuals with cerebral palsy: international perspectives
- The spastic foot management after stroke and traumatic brain injury: from assessment to surgery
- Translation of fundamental motor control and learning principles to optimize neuroplasticity
- Ultrasound applications in rehabilitation